

A WORD OR TWO ABOUT OURSELVES

FIRST

When we have a good thing we are anxious to divide it among our friends. We require more space for our Fall Trade and all Summer Goods must make way. We cannot afford to carry them over until next season. We give you Bargains.

SECOND

Our Fall Goods are coming in daily; very choice designs and colors. Kid Gloves in all new shades and popular lengths. Corsets, all sizes and best makes. Laces, Dress Trimmings, Umbrellas, Hosiery, Etc. Every department is a reservoir of style and elegance. Values beyond the wildest dreams of the economical. We never resort to extravagant statements, but will let the goods speak for themselves.

THIRD

The Fashions illustrated in our Monthly are the latest. We are the only dry goods house that publishes a Fashion Monthly and hope you appreciate our efforts. If you wish to dress well and dress economically, don't fail to read it.

GORMAN'S

GRAND DEPOT

Moscow.

Philip Davis, of Dunmore, is visiting in brother of this place. John Edwards has improved his home by putting up shutters and now is repainting it. J. E. Loveland and wife are at Ocean Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Simons, of Dallas, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Simons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Galt. At the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union on Thursday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Mary Gardner; first vice, Mrs. Margaret Wardell; second vice, Mrs. E. D. Sayre; treasurer, Mrs. A. Clements; secretary, Mrs. E. Swartz; recording secretary, Mrs. E. Rhoads. Mr. and Mrs. Doane and son Willie, and Mrs. Conroy, of Plainfield, N. J., who have been summering at the Simpson House, returned home yesterday. Moses Davis, who has been very sick, is improving. Everett Howe, of Scranton, called on friends here on Friday. Ethel Bonn has returned home to Croton, N. Y. Mr. Collins and family are going to move into the house lately occupied by I. M. Mack. Miss Pelton has bought a fine new carriage. Gracie Bonn is visiting her grandfather at Croton, N. Y. Miss Mary Stine, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting Miss Katie Cunningham. Mrs. O. E. Vaughn returned from Glenburn much improved by the trip. The graded school will open on Monday, Sept. 3.

Moosic.

Mrs. W. S. Hutchings and daughters, Carrie and Ethel, and son, William, left Monday for Preston park. Miss Nettie Gaule, of Pittston, who has been visiting Miss Edith Smith for the past two weeks, returned home last evening. Miss Mattie Brown, of South Main street, is visiting friends in Carbonate. Miss Mame Stewart, of Minooka avenue, is visiting friends at Lake Ariel. Misses Laura and Katie Gillick, and Miss Hattie Bean, of Minooka avenue, attended the excursion to Niagara Falls Aug. 25. Miss Lizzie Monie, of South Main street, has returned home after a six weeks' visit in Canada. Miss Mattie Hines is visiting Miss Grace Edsell of Warrior Run. F. H. Johnson, of Penobscot, was a caller in town yesterday. Miss Nettie Brown spent Sunday with friends in Pittston. Nelson Ross, of Main street, is ill.

Honesdale.

Nat Eggleston is visiting friends in Carbonate. C. E. Scott, of Scranton, was the guest of Fred Martin over Sunday. Mr. Scott returned to Scranton yesterday and Mr. Martin left for his home in Syracuse. James Matthews, of Altoona, is the guest of his mother at the home of William Hawley, of Seelyville. J. Kirk Rose inspected the bridge being built at Keen's pond yesterday. Robert Menner called on Carbonate friends Monday.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chills, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25¢ per box. For sale by Matthews Bros.

FAMILY REUNION.

The Sixty-seventh Birthday of J. D. Kizer Celebrated in a Pleasant Manner.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

KIZER'S, Pa., Aug. 27.—At an early hour Wednesday, Aug. 23, there assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kizer, their sons, daughters, son-in-laws, daughter-in-laws and grand children, the occasion being the celebration of the sixty-seventh anniversary of the father's birthday. The family consists of thirty-four members, as follows: W. W. Kizer and family, E. F. Kizer and family, J. D. Kizer, Jr., and family, and A. F. Kizer; daughters—Mrs. W. J. Cobb and family, Mrs. Mortimer Arnold and family, Mrs. M. S. Shaffer and family, Miss Sylvia Kizer, and Miss Bertha Kizer. The family presented Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kizer each with a beautiful chair, which was highly appreciated by them. The day was passed pleasantly. Songs, instrumental music, fishing and crackling of jokes formed the features of amusement.

Lake John, or better known as Kizer's lake, abounds with fish, and after fishing a short time with the aid of N. L. Croop and Gideon Kizer, the party succeeded in catching a great quantity. The largest fish caught was a black bass which weighed a little less than eight pounds. After partaking of the luxuries which had bounteously been spread, the party had their photographs taken by Mr. Griffin, of Scranton, who is a first class photographer. A cousin, Mrs. Rosenkrantz, of Hawley, being present, was also taken with the group.

W. W. Kizer, the eldest son resides at Varden, Wayne county, and is interested in the milling business. E. F. Kizer resides at Monroeton, Bradford county, and is extensively engaged in the lumber business in Sullivan, Bradford and Jefferson counties. J. D. Kizer, Jr., has purchased part of the homestead, including some timber land, saw mill and lake and resides at Kizers, Pa. A. F. Kizer is a merchant and resides at Peckville.

The son-in-law, W. J. Cobb, resides at Towanda, and is an extensive manufacturer of lumber, having three mills in operation. Mortimer Arnold resides at South Canaan, having been recently engaged in the milling business. M. S. Shaffer is a merchant and is interested in stores at Varden, Peckville and Wilkes-Barre. Miss Sylvia Kizer resides at Peckville, and Miss Bertha, the youngest of the family, is at home.

After passing a very pleasant day the family parted to meet again next year.

Dunmore.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bishop, of Honesdale, spent Sunday at the Summer residence on Blakely street.

Miss Lillian Bishop, of Pittsburg, is a guest at the home of Passenger Agent J. C. Moffatt.

Miss Jennie Osborne, of Wilkes-Barre, who has been a guest of Mrs. John E. Smith, returned home yesterday afternoon.

The first excursion over the new Winton branch of the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad will be run from Jessup to Lake Ariel today. It will be under the auspices of the St. James Catholic Young Men's Total Abstinence society of Jessup.

Mrs. John Oswald and children, of Newark, are guests at the home of E. U. Wert.

Rev. Ralph Gillam, after a two weeks' vacation, left yesterday morning for New York city.

Dr. O. W. Marcy spent Sunday at Lake Ariel.

Among the Atlantic City visitors is Ralph Winters.

On account of no quorum there was no meeting of council on Saturday evening.

Sol Bird has resumed his duties after a short illness.

Thomas Howley is again pulling his train on the Erie and Wyoming Valley, after a short vacation.

Miss Katie Fowler, of Watertown, N. Y., is a guest at the Fowler residence on Cherry street.

Mrs. J. B. Bronson and daughters, Ellen and Romaine, are visiting Thompson, Pa., relatives.

Edward Snyder, of Port Jervis, N. Y., was a visitor yesterday.

Miss Edith Knight, of Pittston, visited friends here on Saturday.

Solomon Cron spent Sunday at Wilkes-Barre.

James Hallock will spend this week with Hoadley friends.

John Jones has moved to his new home on Dudley street.

The grounds surrounding the new residence of Messrs. Wilson and Snyder, on Dudley street, are being improved by florist John Palmer.

Contractors have broken ground for the erection of H. A. Allen's residence on Dudley street.

Miss Fannie Hayscock has returned after a week's visit with Oxford, N. J., relatives.

Engineer Richard Winterstein now occupies his new home on Upper Blakely street.

A party from this place visited the still mills last night. Among them were Miss Lillie Wardell, Nellie Palmer, Miss Kellam and Messrs. Stanley and Fred Gaines and Mr. Whitner.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In case of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only Fifty cents at Matthews Bros' drug store.

Forest City.

Arthur D. Barnes, of Herrick, was a visitor in town Sunday.

The borough school will commence next Monday.

Miss Flo Allen is with a party of Carbonate young people at camp Sunset, near Lake.

Rev. Mr. Oliver, of Thompson, preached two able sermons in the Methodist church in this place Sunday.

Four of our popular young people will leave today for the Mansfield State Normal school. They are Miss Stella Allen, who was at the Normal last year; Miss Edith Brown, Miss Bertha Dunn and George Maxey, who are beginning the course at the Normal.

It is reported that a deposit of granite has been discovered near Franklin Forks, Susquehanna county, on a farm owned by Mr. Whitmarsh.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Moon and Miss Hattie Davis, of Philadelphia, are staying at F. J. Osgood's.

Frank Hine and Thomas Maxey served as jurymen at Montrose last week.

A large number of prominent Forest City people enjoyed the invigorating atmosphere of Crystal lake Sunday.

The forest fire on the east side of the Lackawanna has been spreading rapidly. It is a little unusual to see forest fires raging this time of the year, but owing to the scarcity of rain most of the underbrush has dried and also some timber. Considerable timber owned by the Erie company and the Delaware and Hudson company has been destroyed.

Clark's Green.

Misses Fanny R. and Bessie M. Sherman, of Waverly, spent several days visiting their uncle, A. A. Davis. The public schools began yesterday under most favorable circumstances.

Miss Imogene Akery and Miss Lizzie France will attend their educational interests in Wyoming seminary beginning on the 10th prox.

Rev. A. E. Douglass and wife returned on Friday last from a four weeks' sojourn in New York state. Mrs. Clara Esleman, of Hyde Park, visited her friend, Mrs. A. A. Davis, on Tuesday last.

The picnic of the united Sunday schools of Clark's Green, Clark's Summit and Chinchilla, on Thursday, was largely attended and a very enjoyable affair, pronounced by the many persons present.

Lewis Jones and family, of Pittston, will leave this week with his brother, C. B. Jones.

Willis Austin returned on Friday evening from a week's visit in Newark, N. J.

Ex-Mayor John H. Fellows, George W. O'Neil, A. J. Colborn and Byron Akery, and Henry L. Kuehler, of the Democratic wing, wrote very busy participants in the reunion held here on Saturday.

The base ball game on Saturday between the Clark's Summit farmers and the Chinchilla nine resulted in a victory for the farmers by a score of 18 to 9.

The interest in the Moore's gospel tent still continues and will continue through the week. Fully fifty have acknowledged a change of heart and purpose. Much good is being done.

Samuel Smith and family are comfortably located in his new residence just completed.

The ball game played on Wednesday between the Morning Glories, of the Summit, and a Glenburn nine, the former winning by a score of 39 to 7.

Throop.

J. H. Law and wife returned home after a pleasant visit to Niagara Falls. Mrs. Dice, who has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, moved to Scranton, where she will keep house with her daughters, Carrie and Lena.

Miss Gertrude Shelp, of Bloomsburg, who has been visiting here for some time, left town on Friday last.

Miss Edith Kennedy, of Wyoming, who is visiting her brother, Robert Kennedy, spent Sunday in Priesburg.

The Throop horse company No. 1 is anticipating the arrival of a new horse cart.

Miss Jennie and Miss Mary Williams spent Sunday evening in Providence.

George Bingham and Lawrence Lads, who have been away on a fishing trip, returned with thirty pounds of fish.

The boys of Throop who attended the excursion of Company H, of Providence, greatly enjoyed the trip.

Charles Atterton, who has been away under the treatment of doctors for the past two years returned home on Saturday benefited but very little. When he left he was confined to his bed and now can only move very slowly on crutches.

John H. King has been elected delegate to the Abington Association Baptist convention held at Clark's Green.

Messrs. Hare and Stanton made a flying trip to Wyoming on their wheels on Sunday.

Henry Lee and wife, accompanied by a friend, were in town on Sunday.

Minooka.

The Misses Hattie Wall and Lizzie Crampton, of Green Ridge, visited Miss Maggie McCrea yesterday.

R. J. Cusick is visiting friends in Forest City this week.

The majority of the people in this place who rely, depending on the water line for their supply of water, have been at a great disadvantage for the past week on account of the water being shut off so often. It has been entirely shut off for the last two days, not a drop coming through the pipes. Although the same charges are made monthly, yet the people do not receive the water half of the time.

There is a rumor afloat that some of our leading citizens of this district have a movement on foot to secure annexation of this place and Greenwood to the city. The territory which will be taken in by the movement will include all the land between the present terminus and the Hollenback estate at Greenwood.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS—Be sure you get the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It cures cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

Peckville.

Mrs. Harry Sears, of Binghamton, is visiting at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Sears.

A special meeting of Oriental Star Lodge Free and Accepted Masons, will be held this evening. Work in the third degree.

The following named persons left yesterday for Oswego county to pick hops: Mrs. Thomas Pope, Mrs. M. A. Sayres, Mrs. Oscar Travis, Misses Lena and Emma Barnes, Jennie Williams, Lephia Cullender, Etta Peck, Stella Arnold, Pearl Frear, Messrs. Thomas Solomon and Robert Baras.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buckland, of Kerr's Pond, were visitors here on Sunday.

The many friends of John Grisedale will be glad to hear that he is some better.

Don't forget the Union excursion tomorrow. A good time is in store for all who attend.

Gilmore's Aromatic Wine

—A tonic for ladies. If you are suffering from weakness, and feel exhausted and nervous; are getting thin and all run down, Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will bring roses to your cheeks and restore you to flesh and plumpness. Mothers, use it for your daughters. It is the best regulator and corrector for ailments peculiar to womanhood. It promotes digestion, enriches the blood and gives lasting strength. Sold by Matthews Bros., Scranton.

Jermyn.

Miss Nellie McGuire and Miss Mary Flaherty, of Gulf Summit, N. Y., who have been visiting at P. C. Flaherty's for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Thomas Howwood, of Dunmore, agent for the Erie and Wyoming Valley, and his mother from Luzerne, are visiting friends in town.

The excursion of George W. West division, of Carbonate, of Locomotive Engineers, of Carbonate, Saturday, was enjoyed by about 700 people along the line of the Ontario and Western railroad. Twenty-five people went from our town.

Dispatcher P. F. Flaherty for the Ontario and Western, returned from his vacation Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bidger are at East Branch, N. Y., visiting for a week.

Mrs. Thomas Caruow left on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Nantuxatuck, Conn., where they recently have moved from our place. He is employed in the electric works there.

G. S. Dunn returned to work yesterday after an illness of a few days.

Miss Oita Goble, of Honesdale, spent Sunday visiting Miss Jennie Jay.

O. S. Smith is very sick again.

Rev. E. Gendall is away on his vacation for a week or more.

Last Sunday, both morning and evening, Rev. N. Osborne filled the vacancy in the Methodist Episcopal church. In the evening he spoke with force upon the "Fall of Babylon."

Rev. M. E. Lyndon is at Atlantic City enjoying sea bathing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Winters are at Ocean Grove attending camp meeting.

About fifty people from here went on the excursion Saturday night to Niagara falls. The Jermyn Citizen's band, which made second best in the county, accompanied the excursion.

Two arrived home yesterday morning at 3:30.

Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flock, of West Pittston, spent Sunday with Avoca friends.

Miss Kate Morris, of Providence, is spending a few days with friends in this place.

Hugh Goodwin and daughter, Marion, returned home yesterday after spending a few days with Kingston friends.

The following gentlemen are attending the Democratic county convention at Wilkes-Barre today: Michael Calvey, Thomas Harding and William Walsh.

Miss Jennie H. Dick will leave home on Saturday for Stronaburg, where she will enter and take up the studies of the State Normal school.

Miss Jeanie Campbell, of Penobscot, is spending a few days with her mother, of North Main street.

Lawrence Morahan attended the Calceonian games at Haverhill park on Saturday and took second prize on the running high jump and third on high-kick and vaulting.

Miss B. Fallon, of Hazleton, is the guest of Misses Annie Quinn and Ella Callahan.

E. O'Brien is visiting friends in Carbonate and returning home today.

Tom English, of Pittston, was a visitor in town on Sunday evening.

Mary Gray, of Ashley, is the guest of Agnes Gellispie.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Johnson, of Plains, were guests of Mrs. Newlin on Sunday.

Elmhurst.

A happy party of people met at Hotel Elmhurst on Saturday evening to pin tails on a donkey. Some of the tails were put where they did not belong. The ladies' backs, lace curtains and picture frames were decorated with tails. A number of prizes were awarded. Mayor William Connell won the booby prize. R. Emmet Comings won first prize; Mrs. William Connell, Dr. Connell, Mrs. George L. Brock, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Horace Hand also won prizes. Among those present were: Major George A. Brock, Mrs. Horace Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sumter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Goldsmith, Mrs. Connell, Miss Connell, Miss Watkins, Colonel and Mrs. Schoonmaker, Mrs. Edgar Connell, Misses Fannie and Lucy Fuller, and Durrance Fuller and C. M. Hollister.

On Thursday evening the guests at Hotel Elmhurst celebrated the birthday of Major George L. Brock by a social in the hotel parlors. Forty persons were present, every one of whom brought a token of esteem for the major.

Samuel Sumter has purchased eight lots on Schoonmaker plot, George E. Canfield four and Moses Brown six.

M. L. BLAIR, Alderman, 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '82: He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

Olyphant.

Dr. F. L. Van Sickle and Frank Northrup have returned home from Buffalo.

Curtis Lewesley, of Carbonate was in town yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Gallagher, of Dunmore, spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. John O'Malley, of Dunmore street.

Miss Nellie Gallagher and Miss Etta McDonald have returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in Binghamton.

John Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting his brother, Joseph Williams, of Lackawanna street.

Professor Cummings and M. W. Cummings, Jr., were in the Electric city yesterday.

Thomas McHale, of this place, will leave here tomorrow for Mansfield, where he will attend school the coming term.

Miss Mary Davis has returned home from a two weeks' sojourn at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Kane, of Archbald, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. Murphy, of Dunmore.

The Brown, Jcs., will cross bats with the Grass Cutters, of Providence, on the Browns' grounds this afternoon.

Nicholson.

The entertainment under the auspices of the Universalist church at the Opera House Friday evening, last, by Miss Nellie Weston, of Brooklyn, Pa., and Professor W. T. Lee, of the Rhode Island State college, was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

A great many of our townspeople are camping at Lake Nicholson. Among the number that went last week were L. L. T. Ruff and family, C. B. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Warner. The fishing is fine.

A slight fire in the McDonald building caused its occupants to hustle at an early hour yesterday. No great damage resulted.

Mrs. George Heminger is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams.

Rev. Mr. Adams has returned from a short vacation.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens is spending a few days in Scranton with her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Showmaker.

Mr. McKenny, who is clerking at A. Randies, has moved his family from Brooklyn here.

Hallstead.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association will meet on Sunday, Sept. 2. The cottage meeting on Friday evening, Aug. 31, will be held at the home of J. W. Chichester.

Lida Fisher, who has been visiting friends in Honesdale, has returned home.

Miss Lizzie Sheehan, of Waverly, is the guest of Miss Mame Barker, of Railroad street.

Miss Bessie Perigo, of Shamokin, is stopping with friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Travis, of Binghamton, are visiting friends and relatives in this city.

George Adams is visiting friends in Brooklyn.

Mrs. C. T. McCormick and daughter, Leratta, and Miss Grace Sullivan, were in Scranton today.

Leonard and Grace Marvin, of Norwich, are visiting at the residence of Mr. Ira Preston on Dayton avenue.

Mrs. James Gillen, of Honesdale, is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

William Wallace registered at the Mitchell house to-day.

Colonel Wood is ill.

Richard Osterhout, the popular shoemaker of this place, killed a rattlesnake yesterday measuring 3 feet, 4 inches, and had two rattles.

Hunting's railroad shows will exhibit in Great Bend on Monday, Sept. 10.

The Hallstead Fire company will run an excursion to Lake Ariel Sept. 21.

The teachers' meeting Friday evening will be held at the home of S. A. Hall, on Main street.

The cottage meeting next Friday evening will be held at the home of J. W. Chichester.

Waverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher Fell, of Wilkes-Barre, were the guests of Bert Green Green for a few days last week.

Misses Lealla and Elsie Gillmore, of Scranton, are visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sherman.

E. A. Parker is convalescing after a severe illness.

A. R. Colborn, Jr., candidate for district attorney subject to the Republican convention, was a visitor here last Friday.

Flour confectionery and ice cream, at Martin Bold's Little Delmonico.

Miss Blanche Kennedy is visiting friends in Luzerne county.

Rev. A. Bergen Browne, of the Baptist church, held services both morning and evening to very large congregations.

Madison academy was formally opened for the fall and winter term yesterday. Professor F. C. Hanyer, assisted by Miss P. D. Ralph and Miss Hattie Smith, will teach.

G. H. White is visiting relatives in Scranton.

Squire E. J. Feeley is rapidly recovering from a very severe attack of asthma.

Fresh home-made bread, cakes and pies every day at Martin Bold's Little Delmonico.

</